

Black History DiversiTEA & Culture Chat

Creating a world full of Harmony, Love and Diversity

DATE: 2/21/18 TIME: 2:30 - 4:30

LOCATION: Lawrence Senior Center, 30 E. Darrah Lane,
Lawrenceville, NJ 08648

SIGN UP CALL: 609-844-7048

BLACK HISTORY MONTH - learn about the African American & Caribbean Culture over a hot cup of tea. Individuals can dress in their cultural garments and bring artifacts that represent their culture.

PURPOSE - we start the conversation with TEA to warm your heart and open your mind to new possibilities. Learning about other cultures through conversations will make it easier to understand, accept, and respect each other. Mutual respect and understanding can lead to more harmonious interactions.

Moderated by Lady Tea

- * Make connections as you enjoy a delicious cup of tea
- * Discuss the advantages of diversity and inclusion
- * Participate in questions and answers

BENEFIT:

- * Develop better relationships with others
 - * Learn to appreciate the African American & Caribbean Culture
 - * Release tensions and be lifted into a healthier state of mind
 - * Improve your interactions by having a better understanding of different cultures and beliefs.
- INCLUDES: Desserts & Fresh Brewed Tea in China Teacups to enhance the experience.