Discussion and Review of Policies and Procedures for Posting on the Cable Television Public Access Channel

Mayor Powers provided a brief history relative to the Cable Telecommunications Advisory Committee function and the agenda that they have been working on for some time now regarding the PEG channels and the contents that could be placed on the Township’s website. He then turned the floor over to the following members, James Williams and Bryan Smith, who briefly discussed some of the cable telecommunication issues they have worked through with Comcast and Verizon on a regular basis, and a review of the four-page report that defines and outlines the proposed policies and procedures, as well as, the unique issues surrounding the Government Access Channel.

Afterwards, an at length discussion, question and answer session took place relative to some of the following policies and procedures for the Government Access Channel – such as the definition, policy statement, cable provider channel designation, types of sanctioned programs, access policy, access priorities, management of the government access channel, editing policy, endorsements, promotions, programming restrictions, use of equipment, copyright of programs, archiving and disposition of broadcast material and consistency with Inter-Local Agreement.

In closing, Mayor Powers and Council applauded and thanked Chairman Abe Abramovich and the rest of the Committee members for the great responsiveness and problem solving they provide to the residents of Lawrence regarding cable television issues, as well as, all the hard work they did in drafting the Cable Television Ordinance, after which it was the consensus of the Council that a Resolution be prepared for the October 26th Council meeting with the amendments that were decided upon.

Mr. Krawczun advised that the policy will also be equivalent to the Township website, as they will be using the same standards for both the website and the PEG channel.

Ms. Judith Brickman, Fox & Roach Realtors, Princeton, New Jersey stated she is a resident of Lawrence Township and has been selling real estate in the Township for the last 26 years and she is present to discuss the proposed Sign Ordinance that prohibits realtors from displaying their Open House directional signs on public property and removal of commercial signs within 7 days after closing or settlement, especially, given the unprecedented real estate market, where there is a tremendous amount of inventory of houses in Lawrence Township to be sold and proceeded to discuss the importance of advertising Open Houses, as it relates to the companies' clients, who pay taxes in the Township, and their properties being successfully advertised for lease or sale, after which she urged the Council to reconsider their position on the proposed changes to the Ordinance.

Mayor Powers thanked Ms. Brickman for her comments and advised from the Council's perspective they have to balance competing interest, as there is a commercial interest with respect to the real estate community and an aesthetic interest that the Council is trying to balance with respect to the Open House exceptions and signs being displayed offsite, after which an at length discussion followed relative to the legal placement of real estate signs so that they are not blocking the public right-of-ways and written consent for the placement of signs on private property.

Mr. Falk Engle, 10 Barnett Road, stated the he has been following along with the conversation and for clarification purposes they have streamlined the Sign Ordinance to a large extent on behalf of realtors, as the written consent requirement has been removed which will help facilitate the process considerably, and he believes the exemplary text that has been incorporated in the proposed Ordinance regarding the First Amendment that protects citizens rights to view point and commercial speech will help reduce some of the burden businesses might find onerous, to include some of the things related to realtors, and that the changes to the Ordinance will do the Township proud.

Mr. Engle stated there is one element that he believes is a problem that he would like to address and he has prepared a memo which was submitted to Mr. Nerwinski for review. And, indicated subsequent to the last Council meeting the lawyers were made quite nervous by the proposed categorical ban of balloons on real estate signs and after researching the issue the problem he found is if the Township singles out a particular domain of commerce, as in this case it would be realtors, for a specific burden that is viewed under legal review as discriminatory motive or discriminatory intent, that would disqualify the Ordinance under the time, place, manner standard of intermediate scrutiny that the Township is trying to achieve to prevent future litigation.

Mr. Engle proceeded to discuss in detail the time, place, manner regulations and restrictions that must be content, subject matter and viewpoint neutral with a non-discriminatory motive or intent and the possible challenges with respect to litigation that could arise if they choose to proceed with the categorical ban of balloons on any kind of signs and suggested they create a limitation of (3) three balloons on a sign instead of the blanket prohibition of balloons, which the Township can not defend. In closing, he strongly urged the Council to use the time, place, and manner restriction, as it applies to the Sign Ordinance, as it is defensible and would prevent another costly lawsuit.

An at length discussion, question and answer session took place relative to the balloons being treated as a commercial sign and defensible litigation, setting a policy that would limit the number of balloons that can be placed on signs and the legal ramifications with regards to the proposed blanket ban of balloons on commercial and real estate signs.
