February 27, 2017

Members Present: Doris Weisberg, David Bosted, Edward Sproles and Carmine Di Sanzo
Members Absent: Sheila Grant and Judy Bubar
Others Present: Andrew Link, Staff Liaison

Andrew Link convened the meeting at 7:20 PM.

- Election of officers was held. Edward Sproles thanked Carmine Di Sanzo for his past service as Chair and nominated David Bosted for Chairman. Carmine DiSanzo seconded. There were no other nominations. Mr. Bosted was unanimously elected Chairman. Chairman Bosted nominated Edward Sproles for Vice-Chairman. Mr. Sproles declined as did Mr. Di Sanzo. Mr. Sproles nominated Doris Weisberg for Vice-Chairman. Ms. Weisberg said she may have to miss some meetings due to family obligations but would be willing to serve with that understanding. Mr. Bosted seconded. Ms. Weisberg was unanimously elected Vice-Chairman. Chairman Bosted thanked Mr. Di Sanzo for his years as Chair.
- The December 2016 minutes were approved.
- The Long's Own One LLC (Volvo) application was reviewed.
- The Coleman Buick-Cadillac application was reviewed.
- The Green Acres subdivision application was reviewed.
- Vice Chair Weisberg made a motion to table the review of the tree ordinance until the new Manager is hired. Mr. Sproles seconded and it was unanimously approved.
- Mr. Di Sanzo restocked the library information rack.
- Chairman Bosted suggested the possibility of doing a program at the Library. The Committee had done one successfully in the past.
- Andrew Link said that the planting of the Ash replacements will begin the next day. Chairman Bosted said to take photographs.
- Chairman Bosted said he saw a student project on Emerald Ash Borer that he thought would make a good display at the Nature Center.
- The Arbor Day posters purchased by Mr. Di Sanzo will be redisplayed.
- Ms. Weisberg inquired about the range of EAB and if it is in Albany, New York.
- Chairman Bosted said GEPNA resolved that they desired English Oak to be planted in their public areas.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:21 PM.

Respectfully submitted,

J. Andrew Link
