DIVERSITY/CULTURE EVENT 2014

LAWRENCE TOWNSHIP HUMAN RELATIONS COMMITTEE

May 4th, 2014 - 12:00 noon - 4:00 pm

Lawrence High School Commons
2525 Princeton Pike

Bring your family, friends, and neighbors to this community event as we connect with and celebrate the many ethnic, racial, and cultural groups living in our town. Meet your neighbors from every part of Lawrence Township, make new friends, and be part of this great occasion.

A few highlights from last year.....

... Small town ambiance

This year the Director of Multicultural Affairs at Rider University, Ms. Pamela Pruitt, will be the keynote speaker. Diversity Culture Day is sponsored by the Human Relations Committee and Lawrence High School.

Lots of fun.....

Experience the different exhibits and performances such as Kuulei's Hawaiian Dancers, Henna Tattoo Painting & Arabic name writing by the Islamic Circle of Mercer County. Also, Chinese dancers, the Chinese Yo Yo demonstration, and Chinese Calligraphy. We will have the Ryan Kilcoyne Irish Dancers performing a version of the Irish River Dance, Adithi Sridhar doing a Bollywood dance, a rendition of the song "Barso Re Megha", face painting, and more.

The food is great and it is Free! The local restaurants have always been grand supporters of this event. There will be Indian, Pakistani, Italian, Filipino, Polish, Spanish and American food. Some of the food will be halal. We look forward to seeing you!
