Lawrence Detective Receives Prestigious Award for Cross-Jurisdictional Investigation

Lawrence Township Detective James Steimle received the "Commendation of Merit" from the Trenton Police Department at the Trenton War Memorial's George Washington Ballroom. Chief Christopher Longo, Lt. Kevin Reading, and Sgt. Dan Gladney attended to support their colleague.

The commendation recognized Detective Steimle's work in solving multiple armed robberies in Trenton and Lawrence Township. The suspect had committed two robberies in Trenton on Brunswick Avenue and one in Lawrence Township, using a firearm in each incident.

Through his investigation, Detective Steimle identified the suspect and obtained a search warrant, leading to the perpetrator's arrest and multiple charges across both jurisdictions.

This recognition highlights the strong partnership between the Lawrence Township Police Department and the Mercer County law enforcement community. The department commends Detective Steimle for exemplifying their tenets of Knowledge, Honor, and Integrity.
